Nina B. Reid

• Nina B. Reid, this side of 50, is the Utah County Recorder.

• I was born in Escalante, Utah.

• My current home is in Springville.

• I am married and have three children and three grandchildren.

• My worst job was taking Patch, my old and sick dog to have her transported to a "better place."

• The last good movie I saw was "Canterville Ghost" when I was nine years old.

• The best book I have read recently was Any Rand's "Atlas Shrugged."

• My favorite TV show is the World Series.

• My favorite munchies are raisins and unsalted nuts.

• My nickname is "County wreck" for County Recorder.

• My favorite athletes and performer are my grandchildren, Jonothan and Rebekah (baseball players) and Samantha (artist).

• Nobody knows I would have had my grandchildren first if I had known how much fun they would be.

• I'm a sucker for antiques and estate sales.

• A really great evening for me is sitting in front of a fire with my favorite people — my family, or playing bridge with friends.

• My fantasy is seeing in person all the games in a seven game world series.

• The best advice my mother gave me is "Anything worth doing at all, is worth doing well."

• The one thing I like most in a person is a quiet and humble confident.

• The one thing I can't stand in people is hautiness and dishonesty.

• If I could change one thing about myself, I would make my laugh a little more quiet.

• My most irrational act was when I was first married, I threw the vacuum down hard and cried because it wouldn't work.

• Why I think friends like me is because I like them.

• What I like the most about Utah Valley is the wonderful people.

• What I like least is people who sometimes tend to alienate, unknowingly and sometimes knowingly, those people who do not think as we do or have the same faith as we do.

• If I were President of the U.S., first I would plead insanity.

• My advice for a graduating high school senior is to continue their schooling then not let that get in the way of their education.

• In the future I'd like to see Utah Valley have a major league baseball team.
